

Joining the Writing Team

Thank you so much for expressing interest in writing for Spouse Connexion! We are excited for you to join the team!
Please send me an email if you have any questions! I can't wait to work with you read your stories.

Happy writing!

Sonia Garza

About Spouse Connexion:

Our mission is to inspire and connect military spouses. We provide an online magazine style platform, designed specifically for modern military spouses to come learn, grow and inspire deeper connections with each other and those in their communities.

Target Audience:

When writing your story, keep Megan in mind. Megan is our avatar. She is a 30 year-old military wife and stay at home mom that seeks personal fulfillment, meaningful employment and enjoyment and strives to find balance as a wife and mom.

Blog Post/Story Specs:

1. All stories should be fact-based/fact-checked. We practice ethical reporting and journalism.
2. Make the story your own and add your personality into it. Remember, YOU are the storyteller. If you experience a hick up or writer's block, don't hesitate to contact us for ideas. We're here to help you bring your best story forward.
3. If you are interviewing someone, make sure to include quotes.
4. If your blog post is more to give advice on a subject, make sure to include the tips in a clear, concise and logical outline. Again, we are available to help craft your story.
5. Include 2-3 pictures to use with your story, along with a 1-2 sentence photo caption and photo credit. If you have trouble getting photos to use, let us know and we can source them.
6. Minimum word count is 500 words-1,500 words.
7. You will be featured as the author of the post. Please include a short bio and headshot/picture.
8. Most importantly, HAVE FUN!

Brought to you by Spouse Connexion
"Inspiring and Connecting Military Spouses"